1 Timothy 6:1-2

Title: Good Christian Workers

Big Point: Being a good employee leads to God being glorified

Outline

1. A History of Slavery
2. Non-Christian Bosses
3. Christian Bosses

Questions:

1. Were Paul's instruction for bondservants (slaves) to regard their masters as worthy of honor an endorsement for slavery? If not, what was Paul's point?
2. If Paul was not condoning slavery, why did he not call for the end of the institution?
3. Was it possible to be a follower of Jesus and a slave owner? Are these two identities in conflict with one another?
4. How does this passage of scripture inform the modern day employee to employer relationship?
